General Application

Thank you for your interest in Indiana University scholarships! The General Application for the Academic Year 2020-2021 is open.

You may save your application at any time by clicking Save and Keep Editing at the bottom of the form. CAUTION: If you input information in all required fields – even if that information is incomplete – clicking the Save and Keep Editing button will submit your application. You will receive a submitted application email notification and it will appear to scholarship committees that your application is finished. Please note, your application can be saved, edited and submitted at any time before the application deadline. For more information about saving your application, see the “Save and Keep Editing” article in the IU Knowledge Base.

Once complete, you can submit your application by clicking Finish and Submit.

Note: Required fields are marked with an asterisk. (*)

For scholarship eligibility purposes, do not use an email account that you share with someone else, even if it is a parent or sibling. Using a shared email may delay or postpone the processing of your scholarship application(s). If you do not already have an IU email address, you should create one; see Create first computing accounts for admitted students, faculty, staff, affiliates, and those returning to IU.

Monitor your IU Email account for notifications of future scholarship opportunities. For more information about scholarships, contact the Office of Scholarships on your campus.

This application is also open for IUPUI students applying to scholarships for the 2020 spring semester.

General Application Questions

※ Did you or will you complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the upcoming academic year?

To apply for federal student aid such as federal grants, work-study, and loans you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Some scholarships may require or give preference to students who have submitted a FAFSA. Go to FAFSA.gov for more information or to complete the FAFSA.

※ What campus or campuses are you considering attending?

☒ Bloomington
☐ Columbus
☐ East
☐ Fort Wayne
☐ Indianapolis
☐ Kokomo
☐ Northwest
☐ South Bend
☐ Southeast

This question applies to all applicants whether they are currently enrolled, will enroll this year, or have been admitted as new freshmen, transfer, or graduate students for 2020-2021.

※ When do you expect to graduate from an IU campus? - Answer 1 time.

Please note that this is a very lengthy application that has the capacity to be extremely detailed but you need only answer seven required questions:

1. Did you or will you complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the upcoming academic year?
2. What campus or campuses are you considering attending?
3. When do you expect to graduate from an IU Campus?
4. What is your intended enrollment status for the upcoming academic year? (full-time, at least half-time, less than half-time)
5. Do you plan to work during the school year?
6. Required Scholarship Essay. If you do not feel you would like to disclose any of the information requested in the essay prompts, you do not need to. However, including information about financial hardships and/or future career goals may help the selections committees determine your eligibility for certain awards. If you don't wish to include an essay, simply type anything into this field (i.e. "N/A").
7. Are you ready to submit your general application? Select "Yes"

6. Then type your name into the Signature Statement at the bottom the page.

The screenshot shows a web form titled '* Signature Statement:'. Below the title is a warning: 'Please DO NOT enter your name until you are ready to submit your General Application.' This is followed by a detailed paragraph of legal disclaimers and terms of service regarding the use of the applicant's information. Below this text is a prompt: 'Please enter your full name in the box below.' followed by an empty text input field. At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: 'Save and Keep Editing' and 'Finish and Submit'.

* Signature Statement:

Please DO NOT enter your name until you are ready to submit your General Application.

By submitting this scholarship application, I confirm that any essays or other requested materials for this application are my own original work. Any outside sources used in these submissions have been cited. I understand that information about my academic history and standing will be used in the process of evaluating my candidacy for scholarships and awards at the time applications are reviewed. I understand some awards may require additional application materials. I approve the release of my scholarship application information, recommendation(s), academic records, application contents, and appropriate financial information, including that gleaned from my Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), to the IU Foundation, IU scholarship program offices and to non-university organizations involved in recipient selection for the purpose of scholarship consideration. I hereby certify that all information I submit to Indiana University is true and correct. I understand that any misrepresentation of the facts may be cause for scholarship denial or cancellation.

Please enter your full name in the box below.

Do not complete the Signature Section until you are ready to submit your completed General Application. If you have not completed all required questions and you click "Save and Keep Editing," your application will be saved. If you have data in all required fields, however, your application will be submitted.

Save and Keep Editing Finish and Submit

7. Click the red Finish and Submit button.

8. Once you've completed the General Application you will see the option to complete a Conditional Application in your Application Progress column.

- IUB-Biology Funding Application ⓘ
- Other Recommended Opportunities

Please complete this general application to be considered for most of the Biology Department's Funding Opportunities.

Notes:
Personal statement: Undergraduate Students : Provide a statement (approximately 500 words) that summarize your academic, professional, and scientific development, accomplishments, and goals, particularly as they relate to the criteria of the biology awards for which you are interested in applying. Refer to descriptions of biology awards (<https://biology.indiana.edu/undergraduate/awards-scholarships.html>) for a list of Biology awards. Clicking on the links for individual awards will provide additional details for each award.
Graduate students: Provide a statement (approximately 500 words) addressing your current research interests and priorities.
Letters of Recommendation: Undergraduates must request a letter from a science faculty member or post-doc (not from a graduate student or non-faculty member).
Additional Funding Opportunities may require materials specific to the award and in addition to this general application. Please see the opportunity descriptions for details. Examples of opportunities requiring additional materials include but are not limited to:
IUB-John C. Hanes Memorial Scholarship
IUB-Barve/Rexing Scholarship
IUB-Carlos O. Miller Fellowship
IUB- Colonel Bayard Franklin Floyd Memorial Fund in Plant Sciences

12. You can also search for opportunities by typing keywords into the “Search by Keyword” box. This can be something as simple as “English” to find opportunities you qualify for in the English Department.

The screenshot shows the 'Recommended Opportunities' page. On the left is an 'Application Progress' sidebar with two items: 'General Application' (marked with a green checkmark) and 'Other Recommended Opportunities' (marked with a red circle and a '1' icon). Below the sidebar is an 'Applicant Record' button. The main content area is titled 'Recommended Opportunities' and includes a 'Show Filters' button. It contains a thank you message, a note about the application process, and a 'Read questions and instructions' link. Below this is a search bar with the keyword 'english' entered. The results show '1 Found' and a 'Remove Filters' link. A table lists the results, showing the 'IUB-Culbertson Portfolio Award' with a value of $500.00. The table has columns for 'Award', 'Name', and 'Actions'. The 'Actions' column contains a red 'Apply' button. The footer contains copyright information for 2019 Blackbaud, Inc. and links to Indiana University Campuses and Scholarship Offices.

Thank you for your interest in scholarships at Indiana University! The scholarships listed below are based on your current IU student or applicant profile. Your recommended opportunities will be revised after you submit the General Application. These are broad recommendations. Review the details of the scholarship and its eligibility requirements to determine if you should complete the application. Your application will not be forwarded to reviewers unless you meet all the qualifications for the scholarship. Recommendations can change based on updates to several factors, including but not limited to, your General Application, changes in admissions, program or enrollment statuses, class level, transcripts, etc., along with incoming freshman test scores and GPAs. Be sure to revisit your scholarship applications periodically throughout the application season each year.

Read questions and instructions carefully in the scholarship descriptions. Some scholarship applications may have additional questions or refer you back to the “Scholarship-related Essay” portion of the General Application for more information.
