MFA

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
As a student of theatre, you’ll find your place among an accomplished team of artists, scholars, makers, and practitioners committed to pursuing excellence and rigorous intellectual inquiry.

You’ll learn and work in outstanding facilities. You’ll study with experienced faculty and staff who have dedicated their careers to educating and training the next generation of scholars and artists. And you will join an impressive network of alumni who have studied and practiced their craft on our stages and in our classrooms and studios.

Whatever your passion is, whatever form your artistic vision takes, you are a part of our community.

Take your place.

We see you
This is your time

Our M.F.A. degree is a three-year, 60 credit hour NAST- and URTA-accredited program with nine independent areas of study. We intentionally keep the number of graduate students we accept very small, so you get the personalized, one-on-one training you need to succeed.

Our programs combine classroom learning with extensive practical production experience. You’ll be immersed in the rigorous study and practice of your discipline. As a result, you’ll graduate with broad experience and professional-level skills.

By the time the curtain closes on your final production at IU, you’ll be ready to take your place in the profession.

LINDA PISANO
Department Chair, Professor of Costume Design

Linda is an award-winning costume designer who chairs the IU Department of Theatre, Drama, and Contemporary Dance and directs the Department’s Study Abroad Program in London. She is a member of the United Scenic Artists Local 829 and her work has covered a broad range of theatre, dance, musical theatre, ballet, and opera throughout the United States. Her work has been featured in the Quadrennial World Design Expo in Prague and the World Stage Design exhibition. Several of her ballet designs continue to tour through Canada, England, and the United States. She served on the Board of Directors of the United States Institute for Theatre Technology, regularly presents and publishes, and holds membership in USITT, ATINER, the Costume Society of America, and the Costume Society of Great Britain.

Prepare to shine

Acting M.F.A.
Methodology. Voice. Speech. Movement. Audition preparation. It’s all part of the comprehensive training you’ll receive here. You’ll also get plenty of on-stage experience, with at least one mainstage role per semester.

And since we only accept a total of nine students into our acting M.F.A. program, you’ll be supported by a small, close-knit community where every student is treated as an equal.

Our acting/directing faculty are all working professionals. Many are active members of Actors’ Equity Association (AEA) or the Stage Directors and Choreographers Society (SDC).

Directing M.F.A.
A curriculum rich in theory, technique, and practical experience ensures that you graduate with the analytic, interpretive, and directorial skills necessary to succeed as a director of all major theatre genres.

As an incoming class of one, you’ll also benefit from individual attention from all of our faculty artists, enjoying a mentored experience through each of your three creative projects.

JONATHAN R. MICHAELSEN
Professor, Acting and Directing, Head of Acting and Directing
Jonathan served as chair of the Department of Theatre, Drama, and Contemporary Dance at IU from 2004 to 2018. He was instrumental in re-establishing the M.F.A. program in playwriting at IU and spearheading the creation of the Musical Theatre B.F.A. and Costume Technology M.F.A. degrees. As part of the mainstage season at IU, Jonathan has directed Hamlet, Mr. Burns: A Post Electric Play, Vanya, Sonia, Marsha, and Spike, A Clean House, The Scarlet Letter, Arcadia, A Funny Thing Happened..., and the world premieres of Reel and Nice Nails. Jonathan has studied improvisation at the Second City, Annoyance Theatre, and Improv Olympics in Chicago. He recently collaborated on a devised theatre piece centering on the theme of addiction. Active in the Southeastern Theatre Conference since 1991, he served on the executive committee and as president in 2003–2004. In 2018, Jonathan was honored to be selected as one of three individuals for STC’s Hall of Fame.

He is co-founder and producing artistic director of Ohio Youth Ensemble Stage, a professionally-managed summer youth theatre program that celebrates diversity, inclusion and equal opportunity for all students no matter their ability.
The scholar-artist

History, Theory, and Literature Foundation

All M.F.A. students take courses in the History, Theory, and Literature area. In each class, you'll deeply explore a specific topic, period, or genre within theatre and performance. These classes are designed to help you practice skills of research, writing, and critical analysis, and to apply these skills to your own artistic practice. HTL classes also create an opportunity for students from different M.F.A. programs to interact and build relationships that can last beyond graduate school.

Jennifer is a puppeteer, playwright, and educator originally from Cleveland, Ohio. She spent a season with Madcap Productions Puppet Theatre, touring to eight states performing puppet shows at schools, libraries, and community centers. She also was the education and outreach associate at La Jolla Playhouse, overseeing student matinees, public outreach, and the Young Performers' Workshop for grades two through twelve.

Jennifer holds a B.A. in theatre and cinema from Denison University and an M.A. and Ph.D. in theatre history, literature, and criticism from the Ohio State University. She has worked as an instructor at Missouri State University and as an associate lecturer at University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point, as well as teaching adjunct at University of Redlands, Palomar College, and San Diego Mesa College.

Eric is a Latino theatre artist and scholar, whose writing on Latinx theatre brings visibility to its history and promotes its production on university and professional stages. He graduated with his Ph.D. from the LSU School of Theatre in 2016. The research for his first book project, Hemispheric Routes of Avant-Garde Theatre has received several awards and accolades, including the in-residence research fellowship from the Cuban Heritage Collection in the University of Miami Libraries, the LSU Graduate School Dissertation Fellowship, the Ann Veronica Simon Award for Outstanding Gender Studies Dissertation, and special recognition from the Ford Foundation.

Eric teaches courses on theatre history, dramatic literature, performance studies, feminist criticism, and Latin America studies.

Eleanor’s research focuses on contemporary Irish and British theatre, with particular attention to the performance of identity in post-conflict Northern Ireland. She has published several peer-reviewed articles and book chapters on this topic, and is currently working on a book project on theatre in Belfast between the Good Friday Agreement of 1998 and the collapse of the devolved Northern Irish Assembly in 2017.

Eleanor teaches courses in the History, Theory, and Literature area of the Department of Theatre, Drama, and Contemporary Dance. Graduate courses include Performance and Memory, Contemporary British Theatre, and Theatre and the Irish Independence Movement. Before coming to IU, she taught at Texas A&M University.

Eleanor is the Conference Planner for the Theatre History Focus Group of the Association for Theatre in Higher Education. At IU she dramaturged Anne Washburn’s Mr. Burns: A Post-Electric Play, Brian Friet’s Dancing at Lughnasa, and Quiara Alegría Hudes’ play By the Bog of Cats.

Playwriting and Dramaturgy M.F.A.s

Perfect your craft

Dramaturgy M.F.A.
Embrace your role as an essential member of the creative team.

Our newly established training program, helmed by one of the country’s leading new play dramaturgs, combines rigorous academic study with extensive production dramaturgy experience designed to hone your skills as a collaborator, critical thinker, writer, educator, and artistic leader.

You’ll work on the development and production of new plays as well as musicals and classical texts, and explore the role of the dramaturg in dance, devised work, and interdisciplinary performance.

With only three students accepted into the program at a time, you’ll benefit from the mentorship of experienced faculty and nationally recognized guest artists, build a network of professional contacts, and become an integral part of a community of theatre makers.

Playwriting M.F.A.
Develop your voice and learn to write in a variety of styles for stage and screen in this comprehensive training program. You’ll combine rigorous academic work with production experience—and will stage two plays of your own creation on the mainstage season before the end of your time here.

Since only three playwrights are accepted into our program at a time, you’ll get plenty of individual attention and will benefit from the mentorship of veteran playwrights and faculty members.

Tanya Palmer
Associate Professor, Head of Dramaturgy M.F.A. program
Prior to joining the faculty at Indiana University, Tanya served as the Producer and Director of New Play Development at the Goodman Theatre and led the theatre’s new play programs for 14 seasons. She curated and produced New Stages, the theatre’s annual new play festival, and served as the production dramaturg on a number of world premieres including Dana H. by Lucas Hnath, directed by Les Waters; an original adaptation of Roberto Bolaño’s novel 2666 written and directed by Seth Bockley and Robert Falls; Smokefall by Noah Haidle directed by Annie Kauffman; The Happiest Song Plays Last by Quiara Hudes directed by Eddie Torres; The Long Red Road by Brett C. Leonard directed by Philip Seymour Hoffman and the Pulitzer Prize-winning Ruined by Lynn Nottage, directed by Kate Whoriskey. During her time in Chicago, she also taught dramaturgy and playwriting at DePaul University and mentored hundreds of emerging dramaturgs, playwrights and new play directors. As a playwright, her works include Spring, BodyTalk, Trash, The Memory Tour and Don’t Look Back, Must Look Back.

Diana Grisanti
Visiting Professor of Playwriting, Head of Playwriting M.F.A. program
Diana Grisanti is a playwright, educator, and the Co-Artistic Director of Theatre [502] in Louisville, Kentucky. Her plays include The Patron Saint of Losing Sleep (Actor’s Theatre of Charlotte), River City (NNPN Rolling World Premiere), Mandatory (Weber State University), and Bowling for Beginners (Vanderbilt University). She was a contributing writer on the bluegrass-inspired anthology That High Lonesome Sound (Humana Festival at Actors Theatre of Louisville), and is part of the third cohort of Audible Emerging Playwrights.

Diana has written multiple plays for young actors and audiences. She has also co-written three plays with her spouse, Steve Moulds. Currently, she is at work on El Guayabo/The Guava Tree, a bilingual musical for Creede Repertory Theatre, with composer Emiliano Messiez and director Ismael Lara. Diana has been a Michener Fellow, a Kentucky Arts Council Fellow, and a Writer in Residence at Vanderbilt University.
Hone your skills

Design and Technology M.F.A.

If your passion is building the world that brings theatrical productions to life, this is where you belong. We offer six programs, each focused on a different aspect of theatre design and technology.

Our students benefit from a combination of classroom theory and studio practice that ensures you graduate with the analysis, research, adaptation, invention, organization, and communication skills necessary to become an in-demand professional.

We are a proud institutional member of USITT and all of our design faculty are active members of United Scenic Artists local 829.

Reuben Lucas

Associate Professor of Scenic Design, Head of Design and Technology

Reuben has a varied professional design portfolio, which includes scenic and projection designs for theatre and exhibit design for museums. His theatre designs have been seen onstage at the Indiana Repertory Theatre, Denver Center Theatre Company, National Theatre Conservatory, Theatre Aspen, Indiana Festival Theatre, Rocky Mountain Repertory Theatre, Curious Theatre Company, and other companies. Before Indiana University, he was a Chicago-based freelance associate scenic and exhibit designer on museum and theatre projects at various national companies. Additionally, he served as the resident scenic design associate at the Denver Center Theatre Company for four years. Reuben received his M.F.A. from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and is a member of United Scenic Artists Local 829.
Programs

THEATRE TECHNOLOGY
Prepare for a successful career as a technical director. You’ll graduate with a comprehensive skillset including technical management, structural design, construction and design management, and communication and technical research. You’ll have the skills and design sensibilities to be a creative collaborator in a wide variety of theatrical settings.

COSTUME DESIGN
The field of costume design requires a broad knowledge base and a far-reaching skillset encompassing research, analysis, drawing and painting, craft technology, and aesthetics. Our program ensures you graduate with all of the above through a combination of intensive classroom training and work on theatre and contemporary dance productions.

COSTUME TECHNOLOGY
This program prepares you for a career spent turning designs into functional costumes with a solid foundation of draping, pattern-making, dressmaking, and tailoring skills. You’ll combine classroom training with hands-on work, functioning as the cutter/draper for at least four productions and working in a supporting role on many others.

LIGHTING DESIGN
Train your eye and your instincts to become a successful lighting designer for live performance. The robust set of technical and communication skills you’ll develop serve as the core of a flexible and creative approach, and assure a smooth transition into the field. Program alumni have found their place at major American theater and opera companies, lighting firms, and in robust freelance design careers. You’ll be assigned at least five mainstage season lighting designs during your time here, and given the opportunity to play a critical role in many more productions.

SCENIC DESIGN
Prepare for a career spent designing scenery and props. You will receive comprehensive training in the current tools, computer applications, and design-thinking methods required of a professional scenic designer. Emphasis is placed upon script analysis, design research, the digital design work-flow, and model building. Additionally, you will also acquire experience in projections, scenic art, and props through course-work and production leadership positions.

Concentration

SOUND DESIGN
Concentrate in sound design and you’ll receive solid training in acoustics, audio system design, recording and microphone techniques, and sound design fundamentals. You’ll also work as the sound designer on one of our productions in order to apply the design and engineering skills learned in the classroom.
JEFF BALDWIN  Visiting Assistant Professor, Technical Direction
Jeff has served as the technical director on numerous productions, for both indoor and outdoor venues, including Tent Theatre, Indiana Festival Theatre and the Lyceum Theatre. Most recently he served as the Technical Director for the University of Oklahoma, University Theatre. There he taught courses in Technical Production and Advanced Materials. He received a B.S.ed. in Speech and Theatre Education from Missouri State University and an M.F.A. in Theatre Technology from Indiana University. Prior to starting his career in the arts, Jeff served in the United State Marine Corps as part of an infantry boat unit. Over the past 15+ years, he worked his way up through the ranks holding various roles such as master carpenter, assistant technical director, welder, and scenery automation tech. His research interests are motion control systems and scenery automation.

ALLEN HAHN  Associate Professor, Head of Lighting Design
Allen’s wide-ranging professional career extends from world premiere and standard repertoire operas for major U.S. and European opera companies, to work with well-regarded avant-garde directors at the Brooklyn Academy of Music and numerous companies and festivals in Europe, Asia, and South America. He has served as a lighting consultant to artists for installations at New York’s Metropolitan Museum of Art, several galleries in SoHo, and the ARoS Kunstmuseum in Denmark. In addition to his continued professional practice as a lighting designer, other recent creative activity has included two short dance films and research at the intersection of narrative and the built environment, using Mixed Reality and mobile technology to bring theatrical storytelling outside of traditional performance venues. He is a longstanding member of United Scenic Artists Local 829.

DR. ANDREW HOPSON  Professor, Head of Sound Design
Andrew has designed or written the scores for shows across the United States, including the Indiana Repertory Theatre, where he was resident sound designer for five years. In 2004, his New York debut Trying was rated one of the best Off-Broadway shows of the year. In film, he has scored the documentaries, Birth of Legends, The Battle of Comm Avenue, Hockey’s Greatest Era 1942–1967, The Frozen Four, and Utah’s Olympic Legacy. He has produced, engineered, or performed on over 40 CDs ranging from stories for children to collections of modern American piano works. He is a member of United Scenic Artists, Local 829 and the United States Olympic Legacy Commission Poster Session. He has been an adjudicator for the Costume Society of America, and one of the jurors/editors for the USITT Costume Commission Poster Session. A native New Yorker, he moved to NYC, where he worked with the National Dance Institute. Upon graduation, he moved to NYC, where he made Broadway costumes at Barbara Matera Ltd. First Nations Land Acknowledgment

The IU Department of Theatre + Dance acknowledges and honors the Indigenous communities native to this region, and recognizes that Indiana University Bloomington is built on Indigenous homelands and resources. We recognize the myaamiaki, Lenape, Bodwéwadmik, and saawanwah people as past, present, and future caretakers of this land. We also acknowledge that this University would not exist if it wasn’t for the free, enslaved labor of Black people. We honor the legacy of the African Diaspora and Black life, knowledge, and skills, stolen due to violence and white supremacy.

We are dedicated to amplifying historically marginalized and under-represented voices and perspectives, improving community relationships, correcting the narrative, and making the IU Department of Theatre, Drama, and Contemporary Dance a more supportive and inclusive place for Native and Indigenous, Black, Asian, Latino/a/x, Middle Eastern, South Asian and Pacific Islander, and Multi-Racial students, artists, faculty, and staff. This year we are producing Sueño translated and adapted by Jose Rivera from the play by Pedro Calderón de la Barca and JUMP by Charly Evon Simpson and hosting Chika Ike, director, and Jerrilyn Lanier-Duckworth, costume designer. IU Theatre & Dance invites you to experience the work of these artists, and to acknowledge and honor the living contributions of these artists and makers to the art forms of theatre and dance.

Into the Woods (2015)

A journey through the world of storytelling

Each year, we put on a full season of plays, musicals, and contemporary dance performances. Our productions are carefully chosen to showcase a variety of theatre genres and styles to ensure that you graduate with broad experience and a diverse portfolio.

Our seasons also include original works and student projects, allowing you to explore all facets of performance in the theatre while a student.

We also host a summer season that gives you the opportunity to work with professionals from across the country and enrich the community in which you perform. Our professional summer stock company employs Equity guest actors, IU Theatre & Dance faculty, undergraduates, and M.F.A. students.

Our professional production faculty members are all Academic Specialists in their fields, many of whom are also proud members of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees (IATSE) and Actors’ Equity Association (AEA).
I. CHRISTOPHER BERG
Academic Specialist, Production Technical Director, Scenic Studio Supervisor
Christopher joined the department in 1997. Prior to IU, he worked as technical director for the University of Houston School of Theatre. He also served as the technical director for the Houston Shakespeare Festival. Christopher also worked a season with the Alley Theatre as their draft person. His research interests vary from lean manufacturing and its inherent nature in theatre to the use of composite materials and techniques in scenic and properties construction. Christopher is a member of I.A.T.S.E. Local 618.

MADISON COLQUETTE
Academic Specialist, Department Dramaturg
As the Dramaturg for IU Theatre & Dance, Madison contributes to the planning of the mainstage and summer seasons, mentors student dramaturgs and their work on productions, and works with the M.F.A. Playwrights on the development of new plays for the annual At First Sight Festival. Madison has an M.F.A. in Dramaturgy from the University of Iowa where she served as a dramaturg with the Iowa Playwrights Workshop. She previously worked at the International Writing Program at the University of Iowa, the oldest and largest multinational writing residency in the world, and in the Literary Office at the Eugene O’Neill Theater Center in Waterford, Connecticut.

TRISH HAUSMANN
Academic Specialist, Head of Stage Management, Production Manager
Trish was the House Manager at IU from 2005–2019 and taught Special Topics in Stage Management before accepting the position of Production Manager for the department. Most of Trish’s professional work has been as a stage manager for new works, including the world premiere of Chen Shui-Zheng’s retelling of a classic Chinese opera, The Peach Blossom Fan, produced at the REDCAT in Los Angeles. Also at the REDCAT, Trish was the production manager for Invisible Glass, a multimedia puppetry piece. As a stage manager, she worked at the Sundance Theatre Lab. There, Trish was the stage manager for Stew’s Passing Strange. She has also stage managed at the Kentucky Shakespeare Festival, Hope Summer Repertory Theatre, and the Edgemoar Theatre.

BETSY SMITH
Academic Specialist, Lighting Supervisor
Betsy holds a B.F.A. in Lighting Design from The Theatre School at DePaul University. She joined IU in 2019 after a successful season at American Players Theatre where she was the Master Electrician for the Touchstone Theatre. Prior to IU Betsy was the Assistant Master Electrician at Indiana Repertory Theatre for five seasons and held multiple lighting positions at Utah Shakespeare Festival across two seasons. Betsy also spent several years as a freelance electrician in Chicago before moving to Indiana, working at theatres across the city including Chicago Shakespeare Theater, Court Theatre, and Steppenwolf.

ROBBIE STANTON
Academic Specialist, Costume Studio Supervisor
Robbie is the costume supervisor for all Lee Norvelle Theatre & Drama Center productions. He has designed the costumes for the IU Department of Theatre & Dance productions of Sweet Charity, Moon for the Misbegotten, The Misanthrope, Wayzeck, Guys and Dolls, Hurlyburly, Anything Goes, Twelfth Night, Pippin, Brigadoon, Nine, The Sixth Borough, and IU Broadway Cabaret tour, to mention just a few. He has previously designed costumes for the Brown County Playhouse productions of Not Now, Darling, Deathtrap, Barefoot in the Park, The Rainmaker, Lend Me a Tenor, Tintypes, and Pump Boys and Dinette. As a member of I.A.T.S.E local 893, Robbie has enjoyed working on many national tours in both the wardrobe and hair departments.

DAN TRACY
Academic Specialist, Properties and Scenic Paint Supervisor
Before making his way to Indiana University, Dan was a prop carpenter for Indiana Repertory Theatre. He hails from Indianapolis where he freelanced for many years as a scenic and event designer for corporate events, drama, and musical theater. In his time as a freelance designer, he has worked for such companies as the Booth Tarkington Theatre, Jewish Theatre of Bloomington, Andretti Autosports, Delta Faucet, Indy Racing League, City of Indianapolis, NFL players association, Under Armor, Rolls Royce, Indiana University, Indiana Festival Theatre, AOL, and many others. Dan is a member of the S.P.A.M. network of Prop Masters, and a member of USITT and SETC.
Christin Eve Cato is a native New Yorker with a background in performing arts and production, who graduated in spring 2021 with an M.F.A. in Playwriting from Indiana University.

7:45 A.M.
In the mornings I meditate
Even if I wake up late, I recite three things I am thankful for Acknowledge them and be present for more.

8:30 A.M.
I boil two eggs, of course, coffee is a must
Nourishment is key, otherwise I fuss.
I usually walk to campus, 30 minutes, to start my day
When I don’t have time to exercise, I just do it this way.

9:15 A.M.
Because as soon as I get to school, the madness begins...
It’s the storm I’m proud to be in, full of so many #wins.
I get to my desk at A300, check my 40+ daily emails
Some of it junk and spam, and about 20% are retail.

9:30 A.M.
Then I head to class where I learn about the history of theatre
Hemispheric cultures and anthropology, abroad from the bard meter...

11:15 A.M.
Then I head over to teach bright-eyed undergrads how to write a play
It’s always a thrill to hear their thoughts and what they have to say...

1:00 P.M.
Then I head over to seminar where the playwright cohort and I meet
We talk about plays, we talk about life, we laugh, we debate, but it’s sweet.
On other days I walk over to TV writing instead
I watch TV for homework, a relief from being all in my head!

4:00 P.M.
After a full day of work, I teach intro to playwriting for a second time.
Taking energy from the wisdom of the day to stay in my prime...

5:30 P.M.
Followed by a rehearsal with the Black Brown and Beige Theater Troupe
Creating equity and creating space in the Great White Way loop.
I rehearse for my new play, Stoop Pigeons, while rewriting another play for At First Sight...
This one’s a TYA piece, a special treat, full of adventure and insight!
It’s a play about jelly beans, memories, and the anatomy of the brain.
It deals with grief and childhood, you know, all the growing pain...

8:30 P.M. (HOPEFULLY)
Then I’ll go home and cook my favorite thing, depending on how I feel
Sometimes I’m ready to get down in the kitchen, or just heat up a premade meal.
And then I rewrite, read, rewrite, read, in no particular order
For this is the life of the M.F.A. Playwright, such a huge rewarder!

COMING UP NEXT...
I also start rehearsals pretty soon for Quiara Hudes’ Water by the Spoonful
I’ll put on my actor hat for this one, a position for which I’m always grateful.
Financial support for your theatrical goals

While we are consistently rated an excellent educational value, we realize that paying for a graduate education can be difficult.

We offer a number of graduate assistantships and associate instructorships to help you fund your time here. Assistantships and instructorships include 100% tuition (excluding mandatory fees) for nonresidents and residents alike, and includes a monthly stipend in return for 20 hours of service each week.

Graduate assistantships and associate instructorships are eligible for medical and dental benefits.
Spaces made for art

You’ll spend your time at IU perfecting your skills in beautifully designed, modern facilities.

We have three performance venues.

The 236-seat Wells-Metz Theatre is an intimate space where the audience is close to the action. It features a full stage trap room and overhead suspension grid, making it a great space for environmental productions.

The 436-seat proscenium Ruth N. Halls Theatre has a 30-seat orchestra pit and is home to our largest productions. It features a large wing with a paint area immediately adjacent, simplifying the scenery construction process.

The 60-seat Studio Theatre provides space for independent student productions and experimental projects initiated by faculty and staff.

You’ll also find a full complement of workshops and studios with professional grade equipment for our design and technology students as well as classrooms designed with the performing arts in mind.
A community where you can bloom

Bloomington is a small city with the heart of a major metropolis.

Whether you prefer to spend time exploring our gorgeous campus, attending Big Ten sports, or enjoying the diverse shops and restaurants of Kirkwood Avenue, you’ll never run out of things to do. And our progressive academic climate and international culture ensures you’ll feel welcome wherever you go.

Ready to take your place?

We’re thrilled you’re ready to begin the admissions process.

Each of our programs has its own requirements, which can include auditions, interviews, and/or portfolio reviews.
