

Theatre Circle was founded in 1978 to encourage the study and practice of theatre arts at IU and to promote an awareness of IU Theatre throughout the community.

Theatre Circle members enjoy a variety of benefits, including acknowledgment in all IU Theatre programs, emailed information about performances, glimpses behind the scenes, exclusive talks by directors, designers, and theatre scholars, special event invitations, theatre-related travel opportunities, reserved seating at numerous performances and events, and much more.

The mission of the Department of Theatre, Drama, and Contemporary Dance is to advance the art, scholarship, and appreciation of theatre and dance and its place in society. We pursue this mission collectively and as individuals through theatrical productions, scholarship and publication, presentation of our work in national and international venues, formal instruction, and individual mentoring.

For over 40 years, the Theatre Circle Fund has brought together members of the Bloomington community, proud parents of Theatre students, and IU alumni who believe the arts are essential to a good quality of life. As a group, we support the Department's students and faculty in their pursuit of outstanding scholarship and performance.

GIFTS TO THEATRE CIRCLE FUND:

Provide general support to the Department of Theatre, Drama, and Contemporary Dance. They help support the annual Theatre Circle Scholar Award, presented to one or more undergraduate students who have performed exceptionally in their academics and contributed positively to the department.

Contribute to travel funding for students to attend presentations and workshops, participate in design exhibitions, and audition for industry professionals across the country.

Support student recruitment efforts across the country to bring talented young professionals to our university.

Associate Producers are recognized at the production of the donor's choice. Your gifts help support costumes, scenery, lighting, musicians, and title licensing.
